

In Honor of the CONQUEST
of
FORT SACKVILLE and the NORTHWEST TERRITORY

D.J. Ruckman
2017

Great things have been affected by
A few men, well conducted GRC
Son of Rogers and Clark, a true Revolutionary
To Kaintuck he came, Surveying the Lands, he did
When tragedy he found, of senseless scalped murder
He vowed to stop the violence, against the innocents
Even though he was forced, and must endure
Wading through frozen waters, being driven
By the just desire to bring law and order
Somehow, insulated from bitter cold, he led his men on
To surprise and attack, their murderous foe
In their palisaded fort, on the banks of the Wabash
Won us our present freedoms; win it he did
Now ten score years in peace; Art of Family
Thank you George Rogers Clark,
For our Indiana; prosperity
For all, with Honor and dignity
